

PGA JR. LEAGUE FALL REC SEASON | FACT SHEET

The official PGA JR. LEAGUE FALL REC SEASON is here! This standalone recreational season is designed for kids to have fun and continue their team golf journey with friends under expert PGA and LPGA Professional coaching.

REGISTRATION

Registration for Captains opens June 17, with player registration opening within 48 hours thereafter. Fall Rec Season registration is reserved for PGA and LPGA Professional Captains who registered and participated in the 2019 spring/summer PGA Jr. League season. Couple of important registration notes:

- A maximum of 8,000 PGA Jr. League players can be accommodated, so Captains are encouraged to have their team(s) register ASAP.
- All PGA Jr. League Captains and players who participated in the spring/summer season must re-register through PGAJrLeague.com.
- Coaches who have previously registered do not need to re-register. Captains will simply roster them to their fall rec team and re-assign permissions.
- Captains and Coaches who have previously passed background screening and APS training will not need to repeat this process.

SEASON TIMELINE

The Fall Rec Season runs from August 1 – December 31. There is no postseason or All-Star selection offered in conjunction with the Fall Rec Season.

AGE DIVISIONS & FORMAT FLEXIBILITY

Both 13u and 17u divisions are offered, however, Captains have the flexibility to combine divisions and adjust playing format for smaller-sized teams. If Captains opt to combine divisions, they should only register their program as 17u.

- For 13u teams, players must be no older than 13-years-old as of December 31, 2019. For 17u teams, players must be no older than 17-years-old as of December 31, 2019.

SUPPORT, RESOURCES, TEAM KITS

Captains, players and families will continue to receive the same great experiences provided during the spring/summer season.

This includes full-service support from Regional League Managers, turnkey pre-season and in-season tools and resources, player scholarship availability, as well as an updated team kit for players featuring new jersey designs and more. The PGA REACH league fee will remain $75.

League medals will again be provided to winning teams at the conclusion of the season.
