

Wisconsin PGA Section – Special Awards 2020

Recipient: Jeff Kaiser, PGA of the TaylorMade Player Development Center (Madison)

Award: Teacher of the Year

Jeff Kaiser, PGA of the TaylorMade Player Development Center is the recipient of the 2020 Teacher of the Year Award. This award recognizes a WPGA Golf Professional who has performed outstanding services as a golf teacher and coach.

“This award means a great deal to me,” said Kaiser. “An award coming from a nomination, by my industry peers, voted on by my industry peers, that which reflects on my work with my players.”

Kaiser acknowledges the following people for positively impacting his career: Brian Bishop, Brian Coffman, Tom Fisher, Matt Flaten, Tom Gees, Shaun Rezachek, Jim Schuman, Derek Schnarr, Sean Toulon, Dr. Benoit Vincent, and Joel Zucker.

He takes great pride in several of his accomplishments including; qualifying for the 2015, 2019 and 2020 PGA Professional Championships; participating in the National Assistant PGA Professional Championship in 2010 and 2012; playing for the University of Wisconsin-Madison Men’s Golf Team from 2004-2008; earning his Class A PGA Membership in 2014; and becoming a TaylorMade MAT-T System Certified Master Fitter.

Beginning his professional career in 2008, Kaiser has held positions in golf retail stores and was an Assistant Golf Professional at Maple Bluff Country Club in Madison. Currently Kaiser manages the TaylorMade Player Development Center in Madison and is the location manager at Nevada Bob’s Golf in Madison where he oversees the daily operations of the golf shop located within Vitense Golfland. He also is a dedicated fitter and instructor for the Balance & Believe Academy at Blackhawk CC.

Kaiser attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Business and Management. He is originally from Onalaska and now resides in Verona.

Get To Know The Pro:

Which golf "superpower" would you add to your game?

100% up and down from 25 yards and in

Dinner for four. (including you.) Who are you inviting?

My wife, My father and Her father

Favorite thing to do outside of golf is:

Peloton

Words of advice:

Work hard. Do right by the consumer and you will be successful. Period.

About Jeff Kaiser Golf Instruction

Jeff Kaiser Golf Instruction focuses on providing the necessary tools and resources to achieve your goals as it pertains to the game of golf. The program has experience helping players accomplish goals at all levels with services or packages that will fit the needs of all golfers.

More Information

Jeff Kaiser Golf Instruction @ Vitense Golfland Academy

5501 Schroeder Road, Madison

608-512-8429

jkaiser@pga.com