Awards & Honors

2010 Illinois PGA Assistant Professional of the Year

Past Work Experiences

Head Professional - North Shore Country Club – Mequon

1st Assistant Professional - Ivanhoe Club in Mundelein, Illinois

Favorite quote – "The most rewarding things you do in life are often the ones that look like they cannot be done." Arnold Palmer

Favorite homemade meal – Steak and Potatoes

Favorite way to spend free time / hobbies / personal interests – In my free time I enjoy playing golf for fun as well as anything my boys William and Jack like to do. My wife and I wish we could travel more but that is on the list for when we have a bit more time on our hands.

Dream foursome and venue – My Father, Arnold Palmer, Charles Finch at Cypress Point

Golf Superstitions – The golf bag needs to work with the headcovers. There needs to be a color story, a presentation that brings the bag and the clubs together. If it's not looking right, I need to change it up.

What is the best thing to come out of the 2020 pandemic?

Personally, the time with my family as we really came together as we had more time for one another.

Professionally, it was rewarding to provide a safe place for our members and guests and provide a sense of normalcy during a time that was anything but normal.

What are you most looking forward to in 2021?

Personally, I am looking forward to competing in the Nelthorpe Cup in August.

Professionally, I am excited to see the growth and maturity in my professional staff this year. We have been together for 3 years and I am excited to see the level of service we can provide.

Best describe what it means to win this award?

I take great pride in this award and it is a reflection of my staff's hard work and commitment to our membership. Each professional believes they do the best they can and I could not be prouder of the team I have working with me at Ozaukee. This award may have my name on it, but it belongs to all of us as well as my mentors that have helped me along the way.
